Mr. Harold Weisburg; 1-30-99

I have enjoyed reading your books especially "Case Open" and "Never Again".

You were very kind to me when I called you several years ago to ask about ordering your books.

I've been researching for a little over 10 years. I've given lectures and written several papers on the subject.

Today a friend asked me why Robert Kennedy was anxious in prosecuting Mafia figures such as Carlos Marcello.

What did the Mafia do to set him off, is what I mean to ask.

I'd sure appreciate any help you could give me on this matter. I honestly didn't have an answer. I told my friend if anyone knows it will be Mr. Harold Weisburg.

If you would, please respond.

Thanks,

Mike Pardue

P.S. I realize I misspelled your name. Sorry, Mr. Weisberg.
